INTRODUCTION:

The dilemma of prayer-less living and sleepy praying . . .

“God is not the author of boredom – especially when we are _____with
_____”

- Colossians 4:2; Ephesians 6:18; 1 Peter 4:7

? The Possibilities of Creative Prayer

- We always pray to a Creative _____
- We should pray from the Creative _____
- We must pray by the Creative _____

"But as it is written: 'Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.' But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God . . . Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God."

~ 1 Corinthians 2:9-12 (also Romans 8:26-27)

- We can pray in a Creative _____

? The Practice of Creative Prayer

Using the 4/4 Pattern:

- R_____ (Who is God?)
- R_____ (How should I respond?)
- R_____ (What should I pray about?)
- R_____ (Where do I go from here?)

CONCLUSION:

Stay awake and pray. Your Creative God awaits you.
